

The YL Dude List

Here at YL Family, we know that women comprise the majority of Young Living's distributors, but we also know that dudes love Young Living too. We have two options, we can either turn YL into a dating service, or we can bring these men into the YL Lifestyle. If you're a guy, you have to ask yourself one question, "Do I love lavender?" Well, do ya, punk? The answer is likely a yes, so say hello to my little friend, the Rainstone Diffuser. We joke, but we all know most of the men out there with wives, mothers, sisters, and friends in Young Living are just closet oilers. So what are the best YL dude products? Here are our favorites. . .

Whether you have a clean-shaven face or a full beard, all guys have to shave at least a little. It's that dreaded thing that we put off as long as possible hoping that our razor burn might subside by our face's next encounter with those "precision" edges. Or, maybe, just maybe, our significant other might just like us as a mountain man; it's popular these days, right?

doesn't just belong under the kitchen sink; it belongs in every man's garage. Is it because we really enjoy the smells of cinnamon, clove, and gasoline mixed together? Maybe. But really it's because we like our wheels clean, the interiors of our cars free from the appearance that we have 15 children, and so that our BBQ grills can perfectly sear a ribeye instead of looking like one.

Don't want to smell like pretty flowers?

What?!?!

Well, Young Living has a special oil blend just for the guys. You no longer need to smell like you work in the floral section at your local grocery store.

This oil will make you more of a man . . . well, you'll smell like one anyway and feel like one too. . . it's a good thing . . .

Meat is good . . .

Meat is good because it is protein . . .

Protein is good . . .

As guys, we pride ourselves in our ability to get dirty. We enjoy the mud, the dirt, and the engine oil. We enjoy being able to take part of our adventure with us. But when the time comes for the outdoors to stay outdoors . . .

Oil Change? No Problem.

For the crunchy man.

As men, we like to act like we're invincible. But let's be honest, we always need more energy, more support for our bodies, and more focus from our minds. NingXia Red™ and NingXia NITRO have you covered.

It is just that.
